

Please either make the no telemarketers call list law similar to the Indiana law or allow our law to stay in place. It is the will of the people to have this law on the books and a watered down version is not what we want.